

Howfield Manor Hotel

Howfield is conveniently located just two miles from the centre of historic Canterbury. There is plenty of free parking on site, and the hotel is less than a mile from the railway station at Chartham, or a short taxi ride from the two rail stations in Canterbury. Ideally situated for road and rail access to continental Europe, Canterbury is less than a ½ hour drive from the International Station at Ashford, and passenger ferry ports at Dover, Folkestone and Ramsgate.

Accommodation

We offer Bed & Breakfast accommodation in spacious and well appointed guest rooms, both in the old and new wings of the hotel.

CHARTHAM HATCH

In Memoriam

Howfield Manor is the perfect place for families and friends to gather on those occasions, such as funerals and memorial services, when the last thing anyone wants to worry about are the arrangements.

You can be sure to receive a first rate service in a truly fitting setting, delivered by sympathetic members of our team.

In Memoriam

The planning of a funeral wake is never easy but the staff at Howfield Manor will do their utmost to help you at this sensitive time. Our Manor Suite is available for up to 100 people whilst our Oak room is more intimate and is more suited to smaller groups.

We can expertly cater for both morning and afternoon functions. To simplify the process we offer an all inclusive funeral tea, however, we would welcome the chance to discuss your thoughts and requirements to allow for any personal remembrance dishes or requests.

The bar is also available if required.

We realise that many friends and relatives may have travelled some distance to attend and would suggest that Howfield Manor can be used as a "prior to the service" meeting place where people can rest and refresh after their journey.

Our large car park is ideal for parking prior to any service and cars are welcome to remain their during the service if necessary.

Do not hesitate to also discuss any other details with us be it appropriate background music, photographic memories on view or floral tributes.
